Renowned Artistic Heritage

Both the son and grandson of sculptors, Roman Hamisky was introduced to metalworking at a young age by his grandmother, Claude Lalanne. For over 15 years, he honed his craft in the workshop of Claude and François-Xavier Lalanne, perfecting a practice deeply rooted in his family heritage.

The Workshop

Roman Hamisky has been crafting in his own studio, an old barn completely renovated for the creation of their metal/bronze artworks for over twenty years. A portion of this studio is now dedicated to the renovation and restoration of contemporary art pieces.

Know-How

Roman Hamisky runs the renovation & restoration workshop with Jérôme Blandin, former assistant to Claude and François-Xavier Lalanne for 18 years. Together, they perpetuate the tradition of renowned expertise.

Renovations take place in the workshop or directly at the homes of collectors or private foundations, in France and abroad.

Transmission

At the core of our restoration and renovation workshop, a multidisciplinary team skillfully works with metal to repair, protect, and restore a sculpture's original color and luster.

With an impeccable mastery of patina it becomes possible to reinstate the artistic signature of the renovated piece.

*« The intelligence of the hand is paramount.
Technique needs to be perfect to be invisible. »*
